DEDICATION

PATRICIA L. RODERICK - ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

The 1980 Yearbook is dedicated to Ms. Patricia Roderick of the Social Service Department for her dedication and model to the students at Salem State. Ms. Roderick has been at Salem State since September of 1972 and served as the first Department Chairperson of Social Service. She was a prime contributor on getting the academic program towards accreditation by the Council on Social Work Education this past December. This accreditation will make it easier for Social Service graduates to acquire State Social Work Licenses and advance study in graduate school.

Her involvement with students in extensive. Not only does she serve as ad-hoc advisor to the Student Active Resource Team, she has been a consultant to many students from the Community Research Methods Course as well as a strong advocate for students and their involvement in all aspects of their education. Ms. Roderick devotes a great deal of her personal time to community groups such as the Social Advocates for Youth, and Big Brother/Big Sister Association of the North Shore, a group she helped to found.

This past year Ms. Roderick was a recipient of the Distuinguished Service Award, an award granted to outstanding members of the State College Faculty by the Board of Trustees.

We at the Clipper feel it a great honor to dedicate this book to Ms. Patricia Roderick.

FIELD HOCKEY

Women's field hockey team had a winning season with a 9-7 record. Sue Rizzotti, Nancy Manganelli, Maureen Moroney and Vicki Ware were voted to the MASCAC all star team for their efforts.

Salem's biggest win this season was over Division One power Boston University. The Vikings went bown to BU and won the game by a 2-0 score.

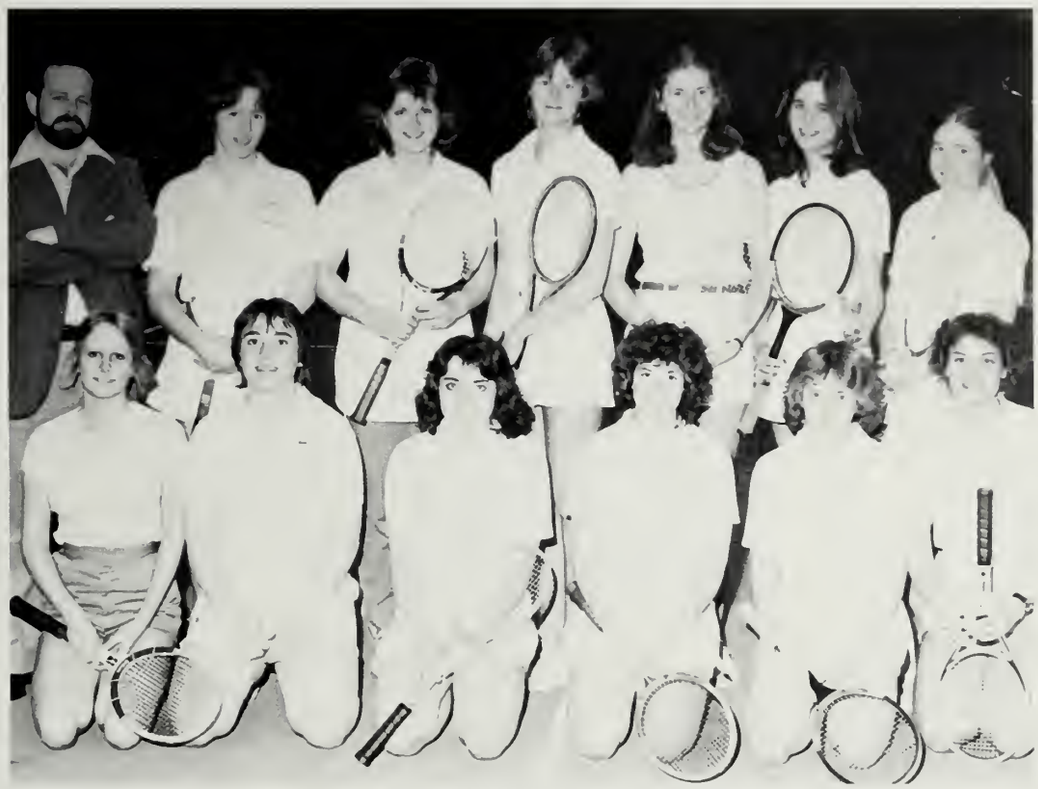
TENNIS



The highlight of the Women's tennis team was the selection of two players to the MASCAC all star team. Sherry Sampson and Donna Leger both were picked for the six member squad. Salem finished with a 5-4 record. Most of the players will be coming back next year and coach Steve Harney is looking for a promising season.

The Vikings had high expectations for the 79-80 season, they weren't disappointed. Coach Marc Whitehouse and assistant coach Mark Azarian put together an impressive 10-3-1 season. The Vikings, playing their first season on the new soccer field in front of the O'Keefe Sports Center, went undefeated at home.

The Vikes were strong at every position, leading the offensive attack was Ray Kocher and senior Dave Peters. The mid-field play of the Vikings was one of the best in the conference, headed by Ken Kocher at center. Salem's major offensive threat from mid-field was co-captain Barry McSweeney. Barry's contributions did not go unnoticed, he was selected Mass. Conf. Player of the week twice. Aparicio Smart also played a steady mid-field game for the Vikes. Jay Williams played all three half-back positions. The defense of this years team was one of the best in Div. 3 soccer. Full-back positions were manned by Rico Miranda, Ralph Ingoglia and Steve Burke. The back bone of Salems defense was anchored by Co-captains Rocco Coviello and Dave Charest. The goaltending duties were split between Bill Kurpiel and James Woodman, both of whom contributed to Salems 6 shutout, 10 win season. Best of luck to Seniors, Dave, Barry, Jay, Dave and Rocco.

BASKETBALL

The Viking team had an excellent 10-6 record. The Vikings competed in the MAIAW tournament and dropped a close contest to Westfield State (60-56). Highlighting the season was the 1,000 point scored by Sue Rizotti in a overtime win over Bridgewater. Rizotti became the first women in Salem States history to hit the 1,000 point mark. Salem State will be very competitive next year even with Sue Rizotti graduating.

The Vikings tied for the ECAC Division 3 championship. They won both the Mass. and New England Collegiate golf championships. This is the first time SSC has captured the ECAC title.

The Vikings coach George Jacobson has now led his squads to 14 consecutive ECAC championship tournaments.

Individual honors went to Paul Littlejohn and Bill Lynch. The two Viking golfers were selected to the Division 3 All-American team as a result of their outstanding play.

The volleyball team played the most challenging schedule in the history of the college. Salem finished with a 14-8 record which was excellent considering some of the powerhouses they went up against.

The Vikings competed in the first annual Salem State Volleyball Tournament in which they finished third.

Salem will lose only two players this year so they will have to be optimistic next year.

GYMNASTICS

The gymnastic team compiled an overall season record of 10-6. Kelly Dixon led the Salem State gymnasts in points. Many of these performers will be back next year and they should be strong.

A highlight of the season was the MAIAW tournament which was hosted by Salem State. Salem placed fourth in the tournament.

TENNIS

The men's tennis team had a brilliant year. They won the Mass. State College Conference and finished the season with an overall record of 11-1. Pat O'Connell, Joe Violette, Paul Gardner and Steve Saia were selected as members of the MASCAC all star team. This marked the sixth straight year that Salem State had won the MASCAC championship under the direction of coach Grant Longley.

The Vikings had a brilliant season. They made the NCAA playoffs in Division 3 for the first time in the history of the college and tied for the MASCAC championship. Overall the Vikings won 19 and lost 9. Ed Gieras and Dave Knight led the club in scoring with 18.4 points per game averages. Knight, Gieras and Bill Killilea each hit their 1000 point of their career at Salem.

The Vikings hockey team concluded the season with an impressive 21-8 overall record.

In Division II competition the team finished 19-7. Highlights of the season are; the team playing in the first annual Tea Pot Tournament at Boston Gardens. Salem finished second. The Vikings were ranked third in Division II east and fifth in the nation. Jay Palladino the all-American goal tender, was in the net for 16 of the Vikings victories, Ed Sousa led the club in scoring with 18 goals and 17 assists. Palladino finished with a career goals against average of 2.45 at Salem State. He also had ten shutouts, which is a new ECAC Division II record. Perhaps the most memorable night of the season was the game with the Romanian national hockey team. They played exceptional hockey and defeated the Romanian team 6-4.

come again
or if it does it might not be the same
the loves remembered those that last
have caught me living in the past for now is next to nothing compared to where I've been and that time of loving may not come again.

REMEMBER

WHEN, . . .

Remember the smell of formeldehyde at 8:30 in the morning

(especially when you are experiencing a tremendous headache.)

Remember Professor MacIever's 2:30 Friday afternoon class in intro to Social Studies.

Remember Dying to Graduate from here

Remember going crazy and partying till the sun rose in the first floor triples

Remember 100 quarts of Miller and initiation into the honorary Cardinal Puff Puff, first floor Peabody

Remember scoffing Chef's Buns as Daka Doo-Goo,

Remember Marblehead on a stormy Saturday, . . .

Time spent at Bertini's, Happy Hour's arrival after an endless week,

Going nuts all week long during Senior Week,

Trying to forget the last date or remembering the last date you had in the past two months, walking on the beach with a ballon eating ice cream.

The 1980 Clipper is brought to you by a diverse group of people who tried to include the highlights of the past year.

Thanks are due to the following people for their contributions and help in putting together the book.

Laurianne Sabina Helen Felt MaryAnn L'Heuex

Francis Croken Laura King

Lynn McCain Hartford Arts School Marg Andrews

Debora Forest Sheree Baer

Debora Mayo MaryAnn Luongo

Especially, thanks are due for the extra time, dedication and expertise given by Richard Sprague, Class of 1977. Without whose help, we might have all quit. His experience has proven an invaluable asset in compilicy of this book.

Extra gratitude and appreciation is extended to Mr. Tom Keeley of Josten's American Yearbook Company who stuck by the drep of the remaining staff. His undertaking of Salem State College is evident throughout the book. Without his contribution and patience, you would be holding a completely different product.

We would he remiss if we did not thank Helen Watson-Felt, also, for her contribution. Helen's knowledge along with her organizational abilities will always be appreciated, for without it, this task would have been much more difficult than it already was.

We hope that you will find the book enjoyable and will he ahle to relive many happy memories of the past year through the Clipper.

Please remember that putting together a Yearbook is no easy task and it takes a great deal of time and effort. We like to think that we have done the book for you and hope that you think so too.
